

What is a vaccine grace period?

Last Modified on 05/22/2019 8:34 am EDT

ACIP allows a grace period for vaccine doses administered up to 4 days before the recommended minimum interval age, excluding the rabies vaccine. Vaccines given in the grace period will be considered valid. If a vaccine was administered 5 or more days earlier than recommended it is not valid and must be repeated using the recommended minimum interval.