What is the difference between a one-time and recurring export job?

Last Modified on 10/29/2020 11:26 am EDT

Warning: This information is intended only for clients who are using the IntelliChart portal.

A one-time job runs for the Export Date and Time specified by the user. For example: This Wednesday at 9:00 PM.

A recurring job runs every time the user indicates until the Job End Date. For example: Day 1 of the month, every month at 9:00 PM.
